Time:	A mission statement talks about Westside's present.	A vision statement talks about Westside's future.
Function:	It informs the goal for which Westside is functioning.	It lists where Westside sees herself some years from now.
About:	A mission statement talks about "HOW" Westside will get to where she wants to be.	A vision statement outlines "WHERE" Westside wants to be.

MISSION & VISION

A Mission statement talks about what the church is now. It concentrates on present; it defines the target demographic, critical processes and it informs you about the desired level of performance.

A Vision statement outlines what a company wants to be. It concentrates on the future; it is a source of inspiration; it provides clear decision-making criteria.
