

Rita Oliver, CEO/Founder, of Strategies Options and Solutions, LLC. She is a Certified Wealth Management Specialist™, Master Financial Coach, IRAFC Registered Financial Associate, and Licensed Life Agent in the state of Texas. She has a B.B.A. in Banking and Finance from Mississippi State University and MBA in Management from Amberton University.

Rita retired after 36 years as a Federal Government Auditor and last 16 as an Audit Director. Rita coaches Public and Private Sector Professionals to Retire with Money by automatically saving 30% of their income in retirement investments so they do not RETIRE BROKE! Her SOS Retirement Planning Coaching Program helps these professionals to organize their money, optimize their money and create a retirement exit strategy plan to retire on time with financial security.

She is the author of the books Disclose Before You Disrobe- Financial Necessities Before You Say I Do and After and the Combination Code Workbook and Journal that shows couples how to create their Household's Master Financial Blueprint to live comfortably today and build wealth.

Rita's belief is that we all can live a life of Financial Freedom if we change our Mindset, Behaviors and Actions with our Money.
